

Moyne Launches New Website

Moyne specialises in providing services for the exhibition and events industry. The new website reflects the diversity of its products and services for these industries.

The website features the new brands - Moyne Exhibitions, Moyne Events and Moyne Design.

Moyne Exhibitions provides services for Exhibition Organisers, Exhibitors and Venues
Moyne Events provides services for organisers of conferences and corporate and private events
Moyne Design is a bespoke design service for residential and commercial property developments.

The contemporary feel of the new brands and the website reflects the journey Moyne has made since it was established in 1992 as an electrical services company.

Significant product enhancements have been made to coincide with the launch of the website. These include a comprehensive online ordering system for exhibitors, new furniture and floor coverings brochures and cost effective 'Ready To Go' feature designs for exhibition organisers.

Moyne has over 30 exhibitions booked for 2011. For information on the latest contracts secured visit the News section of the website.
